

Larry Thomas Burke

Larry Thomas Burke, 65, passed away in his sleep of heart failure February 20, 2017 on Hilton Head Island, SC. He was born in Fort Belvoir, VA on March 17, 1951. He was all Irish and celebrated his birthday and St. Patrick's Day with gusto. As an "army brat" he lived in numerous places growing up. Larry received his undergraduate degree in business administration at the University of Washington and a MBA from Pacific Lutheran University. He was with Key Bank for 38 years, beginning and ending his career in Seattle. He also worked several years in Albany, NY and Cleveland, OH. Larry was known for his commitment to serving his community and, after retiring, he followed his passion for genealogy by volunteering at the Heritage Library on Hilton Head. He is survived by his wife of 35 years, Margaret (Maggie) Smith Burke, daughter, Katherine (Katie) Burke Harrier, brother, James (Jim) Robert Burke, and sister, Shelby Rae Burke, along with many loving extended family members located throughout the country. He was a member of the Dr. George Mosse Chapter, South Carolina Society Sons of the American Revolution. A celebration of Larry's life will take place at the South Carolina Yacht Club, (in Windmill Harbour), 10 Yacht Club Drive, Hilton Head Island, SC, 29926, on March 10, 2017 from 3 to 6PM. Expressions of tribute may be made to the Heritage Library of Hilton Head. www.heritagelib.org
