

Cudworth-Dyer

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place last Saturday, August 25, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram N. Cudworth, of 1245 North Shore avenue, when their daughter Manilla Converse Cudworth, was married to Richard Edward Dyer of Omaha, Nebraska.

The wedding ceremony was performed by The Rev. Dr. John Richard Nichols, at six o'clock, in the presence of the immediate family.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and was attended by Mrs. Thornton Jewett of Rockford, Illinois, as matron of honor and Mr. Thornton Jewett was best man. Mrs. Porter Essley played the wedding march and little June Essley was flower girl.

The bride's gown was white crepe meteor with trimmings of chantilly lace. Her only ornament was a necklace of pearls, the gift of her father. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses.

Mrs. Jewett was gowned in rose georgette over white satin. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The home was decorated with roses, smylax and gladioli.

Mr. and Mrs. Dyer will make their home in Omaha, where Mrs. Dyer will continue her work as head of the department of public speaking in the Omaha high school. She is a graduate of Northwestern (Cummaek) School of Oratory and the University of Chicago.
