

Remembering those who had an unforgettable impact

*IslandPacket.com Sunday,
December 29, 2013*

Staff reports

Those who died in 2013 who left a mark on the community include:

- IDA MARTIN, 86, of Bluffton, died June 12. She founded the nonprofit Bluffton Self Help organization out of her garage in 1987 to help working families, the disabled and the elderly in times of need. In 2011, she received the Presidential Citizens Medal, one of the nation's highest civilian honors. She is fondly remembered for asking President Barack Obama for a hug at the White House ceremony. In 2012, she was inducted into the town of Bluffton's Wall of Honor as "a selfless contributor to the welfare of Bluffton for nearly 20 years."

• IDA MARTIN, 86, of Bluffton, died June 12. She founded the nonprofit Bluffton Self Help organization out of her garage in 1987 to help working families, the disabled and the elderly in times of need. In 2011, she received the Presidential Citizens Medal, one of the nation's highest civilian honors. She is fondly remembered for asking President Barack Obama for a hug at the White House ceremony. In 2012, she was inducted into the town of Bluffton's Wall of Honor as "a selfless contributor to the welfare of Bluffton for nearly 20 years."