Goussier Dupont M. D. in the 58th year of his age.

Dr. D. was a gentleman of cultivated intellect, excellent education & firm social powers & his immense skill, undivided attention & success as a physician, who engaged in the practice of his profession (which in his latter days he abandoned except on special occasions when his services were cheerfully rendered without fee or reward) will long be remembered with gratitude by many who under his skill & the preservation of their lives to him. Of these individuals is the writer of these few notes who wishes to offer this slight tribute at least to his memory.
