Josiah Edgaugh

of Bernard and Catherine (Azzalli) Boglioli, received his early education in the public and high schools of the community in which he was born, Newton, and immediately upon the completion of these courses of study he at once engaged in work in the automobile business in Newton, a line of endeavor which he followed for a period of time somewhat in excess of thirteen years. In the year 1923, however, Mr. Boglioli made an abrupt and complete change in his life's career, and taking over his father's confectionery store, at No. 31 Spring Street, in Newton, he reorganized the company, and under the firm name of F. J. Boglioli, of which he is the owner, he is today operating it on a highly successful basis. He now handles both a retail and a wholesale trade in all confectionery products and ice cream, and it is a pleasing point that he enjoys a large and steadily increasing trade.

During the period of the World War, Mr. Boglioli enlisted in the United States Air Service, and was assigned to duty with the 107th Aerial Service Squadron, stationed first at a point in Texas, then in Florida, and later, in Georgia. One of the very interesting features of this Squadron was that it was composed of men from every State in the Union, including a man from Alaska. Mr. Boglioli served for a period of fourteen months before he was honorably discharged from all further military service.

Despite the long hours and exacting duties of the business in which Mr. Boglioli is engaged, he has still found time in which to take a keen and active interest in the civic affairs of the community in which he resides and works. He is also a member of the Kittatinny Hose Company, No. 1, of Newton, an organization with which he has served at a number of fires since the year 1910. Mr. Boglioli has been almost equally active in his club and social life, for he is affiliated fraternally with Newton Lodge, No. 1521, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, in which lodge he is a charter member; and he is also associated with the Knights of Columbus, No. 486, of Middletown, New York State.

Frank J. Boglioli married, during the year 1921, Elizabeth Bellows, of Middletown, New York. Mr. and Mrs. Boglioli reside at No. 31 Spring Street, Newton, in which city they attend the Roman Catholic Church.

DAVID H. BURNETT—Few men are better known in Whippany and vicinity than is David H. Burnett, proprietor of the general store in Whippany, New Jersey. Mr. Burnett is a native of this place and his entire life to the present time has been identified with its interests. He has a host of friends in this section of the county, and is known as a public-spirited citizen, as well as a successful business man.

David H. Burnett was born in Whippany, New Jersey, September 6, 1864, son of Albert W. and Maria (Hedges) Burnett. He received his education in the public schools of his birthplace, living the life of the boy on the farm, assisting with the chores before and after school and during vacation times, and when school days were over engaged in farming. He had early desired to engage in mercantile pursuits, however, and when the opportunity offered he became proprietor of a general store in Whippany, which he has continued to operate successfully to the present time (1927). He has a very wide acquaintance among the residents of Whippany and vicinity and is well known to nearly everybody in the community. Politically, he gives his support to the principles and the candidates of the Republican party, and his religious affiliation is with the Presbyterian church.

David H. Burnett was married, in Brooklyn, New York, to Maude Love, and they are the parents of three children: 1. Arthur A., married Julia Maskiell, and they have one son, Chester. 2. Emma, married Arthur Clayton, and they have one child, Helen Ruth. 3. Helen, married T. W. Van Devere.

JOSIAH MEDAUGH—To the old Holland-Dutch pioneers who settled on the land, brought up their families in an atmosphere of piety, traded with neighbors and strangers with equal fairness, and presented an impassive front to all changes of fortune—good or evil—the county of Sussex owes an immeasurable debt. Of this type of citizen the late Josiah Medaugh was an outstanding example, for he was descended from one of the Holland-Dutch pioneers who located in the section of Sussex County known as "Clove Valley" several generations ago.

Josiah Medaugh was born in Sussex County December 28, 1811. He was a son of Benjamin and a grandson of John MeLaugh. The latter located in the Wantage Township section of Clove Valley and was owner of the largest section of land possessed by one individual in that locality. He was a man of means and of high standing in his community. He owned a large number of slaves, for whom he had a private burial ground on his property. He died on his homestead and is buried in the old Clove Cemetery. His son Benjamin, the father of Josiah, also lived all his life in the Clove Valley, and his children were born in the house erected by his father. Josiah attended the local schools as a boy, and when he attained manhood purchased a farm near Beemerville, upon which he lived to the day of his death, January 31, 1881. During these years he had become a man of standing in his community, highly respected and well liked by all with whom he came into contact. He assisted in the building of the Second Presbyterian Church of Wantage, which is located at Beemerville, and was ever active in its financial and moral support.

On January 3, 1820, he was united in marriage to Christian Van Sickle, a descendant of another of the prominent Holland-Dutch families of the neighborhood. Mrs. Medaugh died July 7, 1900, at the age of eighty-seven years, and both she and her husband are buried side by side in Beemerville Cemetery. They had a large family of children, as follows: 1. William, deceased. 2. Mary, deceased. 3. Jane, died at an early age. 4. Pigele, widow of Edgar Dunning, resides at Orange, New Jersey. 5. Daniel, deceased. 6. Anna A., lives at Beemerville. 7. Alice A., who died at the age of thirty-seven years. She married Ellis F. Edwards, and had children: Henry B., William M., Regina, and Frank. With the exception of Mrs. Dunning and Anna A. Medaugh, all the representatives of the Medaugh family have passed away. Miss Anna A. Medaugh was born on her father's farm, attended local public and private schools and Newton Collegiate Institute. She is prominent in all social work in her neighborhood and is a worker in the Second Presbyterian Church of Wantage.

JOSEPH MARELLO—Joseph Marello, popular hotelman of Newton, New Jersey, was born and reared in Italy, and passed his earlier days in the country of his birth and in several other European countries before deciding to seek his fortunes in America.

Joseph Marello, son of Simone, was born in Italy, September 29, 1887. As a lad he attended the schools of both Italy and France. Until he attained his seventeenth year, he assisted his mother in the operation of a general store of which she was the proprietor, and then removed to France, where he remained for a period of two years, then removing to Switzerland. Mr. Marello came to the United States in 1907. Having landed at New York City he there remained for the following three years, having been located at No. 210 West

Tenth Street, that city, and was employed by a hotel, in connection with which he gained much invaluable experience, which was later to stand him in good stead. In 1919, Mr. Marello decided to open a hotel business on his own account, and selected Newton, New Jersey, as its site. He accordingly located in this community, and negotiated the purchase of the widely known Waldmere Hotel, which was operated for many years by Mr. Brickner. Following acquirement of the property Mr. Marello inaugurated many improvements, which now has available fifty guest rooms, and is a most popular hostelry with the traveling public. Mr. Marello is a member of Newton Lodge, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, the Sons of Italy, the Newton Board of Trade, and the Roman Catholic Church at Newton.

Joseph Marello married, in 1913, Catharine Busca, daughter of Peter, who like her husband, is a native of Italy, and to this union has been born a son, Joseph Phelex, whose birth took place July 8, 1926. Mr. Marello became a naturalized American citizen on March 10, 1924, and on the same month and day of 1925 his wife also received her final citizenship papers.

EDGAR D. ACKERMAN—Visitors to the county of Sussex in New Jersey are often advised to ride or walk by the old Struble place of 200 acres, near Hampton, which has been reclaimed and made into a dairy farm by the owners, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar D. Ackerman, a visit to this historic estate is well worth the trouble, because it is not only beautiful in its natural aspects, but the dairy is a model of completeness, fitted out as it is with every modern sanitary equipment for properly handling milk and butter. Mr. Ackerman serves his section well; he is not only a thoroughgoing farmer, but he has a decided mechanical turn through the fact of having been a plumber thirty years at Bloomfield, where, for a short time, he also served as chief of the fire department.

Edgar D. Ackerman was born at Nutley June 30, 1858, the son of James and Margaret E. (Haslenden) Ackerman. His grandfather was William Edgar D. Ackerman. Until he was twenty-six he resided at Nutley, but seeing better opportunities in Bloomfield, he proceeded there and entered the plumbing business. He proved a thoroughgoing business man, with a bent for despatching affairs promptly, and a vacancy occurring in the chiefstainy of the fire department, he was put in the place and rendered splendid service. His wife having come into possession of the old Struble homestead at Hampton, they removed to this place and started a
