Dear Reverend Peeples:

For the first few days after it arrived, I could not put down the "Peebles" book. Thank you very much for giving me the opportunity to have it and for sending it so promptly. Using it as a source, I have drafted a chart showing the lineage from Captain David Peebles to my two sons--Russell Cone III and Carl Perry (both named for a grandfather.)

I hope that my brother, Henry Cary of Tallahassee, and I can construct our family tree by building on the information in the book. Incidentally, who are (were) Anne Bradbury Peebles and J. Hughlett Peebles? Enclosed is my check for $21.75 for another book. Please mail it to H. C. Peeples, 1928 East Indianhead Drive, Tallahassee, FL 32301.

In the near future I hope to visit my Aunt Edna Heagle, now 90, daughter of Henry Calhoun which makes her generation 10. I believe she can help me identify Peeples of generation 9 and some of the Wainwrights. Henry C. married Mary Emma Wainwright, born in north Florida.

My wife, Annette Perry from Kingsland, Georgia notes that Camden County is full of Peeples. That is a whole new possibility. Her mother was Vivian ~~King~~ ^{WINTER} born in Fernandina Beach, Florida. Fortunately Annette is more knowledgeable of her family than I am. (KINGS and SHEFFIELDS)

My maternal grandparents were Thomas Alva Hux, an orphan from South Carolina, and Mary C. Ballard, born in central Florida. My mother, Nellie Lenora born in 1895, who died this past June was the last living of their six children. I regret that I know very little about my relatives on this side of the family.

Once again, thanks to SunTrust and you for opening up a whole new area. As for the organizations you mention, I know too little about either to consider them at this time. Basically, I am not a "joiner" and have not been tempted since I pledged Sigma Nu at the University of Fla. My older son, a history major, may be interested and I will discuss the idea with him. Thank you anyway for the offer of sponsorship.

Sincerely,

Russell C. Peeples
