Dear Dr. Peeples,

I haven't worked on the ~~Peebles~~ Family in several years. Your name was referred to me by Dorothy Peeples of Jacksonville, Fl., in 1984.

Last year I helped form our local DAR chapter and now I have been invited to join the Society of Colonial Dames of the XVII Century. I joined the DAR through Capt. James Marshall' -- his daughter/<sup>Elizabeth</sup> married Jesse<sup>6</sup> Peeples. For the Col. Dames I can either use one of two sons. From the Peeples Book Ante 1600-1962 -- Abraham<sup>4</sup> had Lewis<sup>5</sup> son David<sup>6</sup> son Lewis<sup>7</sup> married his cousin Sarah Peeples dau. of Jesse<sup>6</sup> -- and also son Henry<sup>5</sup> son Jesse<sup>6</sup> dau. Sarah who married Lewis<sup>7</sup>. I toward Henry -- I have written for his will.

I am enclosing my lineage chart. Names covered yellow -- only proof is from book. Have you<sup>5</sup> come in contact with any one that might have same Lewis<sup>5</sup> and Henry<sup>5</sup>? I have most of the of my lines -- if anyone should need a connection.

Yours very truly,

Betty Arrants Springstead

P. S. Has anyone more information on Abraham -- to your knowledge?
