bridegroom and Esther Cone were flower girls. Jane Rhodes of Varnville, cousin of the bride, and Lawton Maner of Garnett were ring-bearers.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, Howard Paul Rhodes, was lovely in her wedding gown on imported Swiss embroidered organdy over taffeta, fashioned with Cathedral train, short sleeves with matching mitts. The fitted bodice had a long torso effect from which fell a full gathered skirt in three tiers. It had an off the shoulder, rounded neck line. The fingertip length veil of bridal illusion fell from a tiara of matching organdie trimmed in pearls and rhinestones. The bride wore a diamond cross belonging to her great aunt, and carried a nosegay-type bouquet of tuberose and valley lilies centered with a white orchid.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception at their home.

During the evening the bride and the bridegroom left for their wedding trip and upon their return will make their home at 164 Valleyjo Circle in Columbia. For traveling the bride wore a light blue polished cotton suit trimmed in nylon velveteen with matching blue hat, black accessories and the orchid lifted from her bouquet.

Mrs. Hallman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Rhodes of Estill. She attended Estill High school and is a senior at the University of South Carolina from which she will graduate in February. She is a member of Alpha Delta Pi Social Sorority and Kappa Delta Epsilon professional sorority.

Mr. Hallman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hallman of Springfield. He attended Springfield High school and Clemson College. He served a year and a half in the United States Army and is now employed with the Southern Telephone Company in Aiken.

Peeples-Roy Marriage Solemnized December 11

TILLMAN, S.C.—Miss Thelma Zeline Roy and Paul Davidson Peeples were united in marriage 8 o'clock Saturday evening, December 11, in St. Paul's Methodist Church in Ridgeland, S.C., by the Rev. Roy L. Pryor and the Rev. Cyril F. Hamm.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Lionel Roy and the late Mr. Roy. Mr. Peeples is the son of Mrs. E. Clyde Peeples and the late Mr. Peeples.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Oscar H. Daly, the bride wore an Empire dress of peau taffeta. Alencon lace embroidered in pearls accented the long-sleeved bodice and scalloped neckline and paved the skirt front. A tailored back bow held the chapel length train and her veil of illusion was caught to a crown of matching lace. Lilies of the valley surrounding an orchid adorned the Bible she carried.

Mrs. Barry D. Bonner of Robins Air Force Base, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor, and Miss Donna Kaye Roy, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Don B. Still of Ridgeland, Mrs. Paul Holmes of Hampton, Miss Linda Tuten of Ridgeland and Miss Toni Clements of Indian-town, Fla. Their Emerald green crepe dresses were sleeveless, with satin ribbons accenting the Empire waists. Each attendant carried and ushers were Joe Jordan of Charleston, William Cloninger, Greensboro, N.C., Bert Appleby, of Springfield, Ga., Bobby Peeples, Estill; and Aubrey Roy, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Roy chose for the wedding a floor-length dress of blue lace with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a gold dress featuring a crepe bodice and satin skirt. She used matching accessories and wore a corsage of green orchids.

Following a reception in the church social hall, Mr. and Mrs. Peeples left on a wedding trip to Florida. The bride wore a tan suit with matching accessories for traveling. The couple will make their home in Estill.

Barry D. Bonner of Robins Air Force Base served as best man for his brother-in-law.
