

JAMES Y. PEEBLES

James Yancy Peebles of 1 Van Buren St., Charleston Heights, died Tuesday at a local hospital.

Graveside services will be at 3 p.m. Thursday in Mount Pleasant Memorial Gardens, directed by McAlister's.

Mr. Peebles was born Sept. 18, 1919 in Stewart, Miss., a son of Anderson R. Peebles and Mrs. Elizabeth Wood Peebles. He was a World War II Army veteran and an employe of the U.S. Army Depot.

Surviving in addition to his mother of Itta Bena, Miss. are: his widow, Mrs. Rebecca LaCoste Peebles of Charleston Heights; a son, James Y. Peebles Jr. of Norfolk, Va.; two daughters, Mrs. Delmas R. Rollins of Charleston and Mrs. Kenneth L. Filmore of Warehouse Point, Conn.; a brother, Frank R. Peebles of Itta Bena; two sisters, Mrs. James Z. Rodgers of Greenville, Miss. and Mrs. Donald M Patterson of Leland, Miss.; and four grandchildren.

West-Central Times, Oct. 1972