

MRS. MARGARET F.
ESTILL, S.C. 2991

HAMPTON COUNTY'S FOREMOST NEWSPAPER SINCE 1879

The Hampton County Guardian

HAMPTON, S. C. WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1968

Party Honors The Peeples

Mrs. Johnston Peeples and Mrs. Robert Peeples were jointly honored on Saturday night, Nov. 30, when their children entertained with a dinner party at the American Legion Hut.

Mrs. Johnston Peeples' children coming for the occasion were: The Johnston F. Peeples family of Columbia; Dr. Paul Peeples and family, of Greer; The C. F. Summers family, of Orlando, Fla.; The Barney Peeples family, of Hampton; and The Otis B. Peeples family, of Estill. The only son who could not be present was Chaplain Charlie Peeples, of California. His family was represented by Mr. and Mrs. John Middlebrook, of Durham, N. C., daughter of Chaplain Peeples.

Mrs. Robert Peeples' children included Rev. Robert E. Peeples and Mrs. Peeples, of Hilton Head; The Randolph Peeples family, of Sumter; and Miss Ruth Peeples, of Columbia.

Around 250 guests enjoyed the occasion.

Lt. Ben Peeples, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Peeples, was unable to attend as he was leaving for Vietnam at the same hour as the dinner party.

Steve Peeples, son of Mr. and Mrs. Folk Peeples, was also unable to be present because of leaving for Vietnam, and John Peeples, son of Randolph Peeples, is at the Air Base in Charleston.