

At a family reunion everyone needs lots of tact. Tact is when you FIB unto others as you would have them FIB unto you.

The oil and wine of a merry meeting is honest good humor. So, let's enjoy our history. If we find it hard to love our enemies, we can at least try to treat our friends and relatives a little bit better. Nothing astonishes folks so much as common sense and plain dealing.

Remember that despite generation gaps, family feuds, cultural barriers and cousinly misunderstandings, we all have blood in common and we all smile in the same language.

New cocktail: Jimmy Carter on the Rocks. Two of them & you can't get that toothy grin off your face.

Vacation is when you go away from home to forget it all - and when you open your suitcase, you realize that's just what you did!

Beauty parlor named Curl Harbor

No one sheds his ancestry.

"God don't sponsor no flops!"

What do Queen Guinevere & the National Bank of Georgia have in common? They were both courted by Lance-uh-lot.

Race between 2 silkworms? They ended up in a TIE.

Dentist entered army as Major in Dental Corps; he goofed on the General's teeth & was demoted to drill sergeant.

Our next president? That intrepid space man:

Ronald Ray-gun!