Dear Robert —

Bless you — and many thanks for sending that Reynolds material to Mary to look over! She and I both appreciate it so very much — → Am convinced that on many of our lines there are quite a few people not included and missing from family accounts and the available records — and apparently my Martha Sarah Reynolds' parents are among those missing for I truly don't believe she was the daughter of William and Jane B. Reynolds. I also think there must be a lot missing about her husband for surely he married again after her death. Apparently, he did not leave a will — I wonder if there are estate records anywhere — probably destroyed during the Civil War. I'm about reconciled to not ever knowing any more about them — but hate to give up on them!

Did you and Coza attend the Fripp Reunion? Received a report on it this week and it sounded like they had a pretty good turn out and an interesting time of it!

And, speaking of reunions and she said they were a help to her —

Reports, I have never received an account of our Lawton Reunion which I always look forward to reading. Do you know if it has not gone out yet, or what? If it has, whom should I contact about it for I surely do want it!

I can't remember just when I wrote you last so don't know whether you all know of the birth of our second little grandson or not. He finally put in his appearance on Sunday, July 21st at 7:00 a.m. - a fine, big baby. Robert Harrison Caldwell weighing in at 9 lbs. 2 oz. and 22" long. He's such a good little fellow and a joy to us all. His big brother, Bill III, has adjusted to him real well and doesn't seem to be jealous for which we are all thankful - but then we've all tried hard to avoid giving him cause to feel jealous. I am busy these days doing things with him so that his Mama can get something done and also to keep him out of mischief when she's busy! He will go to Nursery School for two days a week after Labor Day so that should help some - he's a dear little fellow with a very inquisitive mind and the need to keep busy all of the time.

No other special news with us - can't believe the busy fall season is almost upon us and that our summer is nearly over. Hope this finds you and Cora well & happy - I know you're busy as always. Much love to you both in God's blessing -

Devotedly,
Conille

P.S. Please enlighten me as to whom Margaret Chaplin was who married a Richard Reynolds - can't find them in either my Chaplin or Reynolds accounts!
And to whom does he belong - he married secondly Caroline Ann Perry. When they didn't have issue seems like they get left out of family accounts, etc.! Somehow I feel there's a connection between these three and North's Land - but can't place them at all.
If you know, will greatly appreciate your telling me -
