

THE TELEPHONE

WHEATON COUNTY GEORGIA, FRIDAY, SEPT 21 1934

BREIR CREEK CHAPTER D. A. R.

Breir Creek Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held the first meeting of the fall at the home of the vice-regent, Mrs T J Black, on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs Wadle Perkins acted as joint hostess with Mrs Black. The message of the state regent was read by Mrs P R Kittles.

Mrs T J Evans read a paper on Lafayette.

The following officers were installed for the year:

- Regent—Mrs. Wadle Powell Perkins
 - Vice-regent—Mrs Elizabeth Wyche Black.
 - Recording Secretary—Mrs. Mildred Skinner Butler.
 - Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. Eva Annett Burke.
 - Treasurer—Mrs. Thelma Smith Powell.
 - Chaplain—Mrs Lina Evans Reddick.
 - Registrar—Mrs Katie Bell Hobson Hudmon.
 - Historian—Mrs Eva Cooper Roberts.
 - Parliamentarian—Mrs Lucy Garnett Overstreet.
- Mrs. Perkins named the following committees:
- Program—Mrs Nell Morel Hill and Mrs Carolyn Cumbee Newton.
 - Conservation and Thrift—Mrs Thelma Smith Powell and Mrs Essie Freeman Hollingsworth.
 - National Defence—Mrs Grace Evans Kittles and Mrs. Thelma Smith Powell.

DEATH OF MR. THOMAS M. RHODES

Mr Thomas M Rhodes, who lived near Green Hill in this county, died at Thompson's Hospital, in Millen, Friday the 14th inst. from a stomach trouble that had worried him for several years.

He is survived by his wife who before her marriage was Miss Evelyn Seebels of Statesboro, two daughters, Blanche Avret, Savannah, and Mrs Gladys Rhodes of Sylvania, three sons C. T. Rhodes of Savannah and Harry and Norman Rhodes of Sylvania and one brother, Mr S P Rhodes of Millen.

Mr. Rhodes was fifty nine years old and had spent the most of his life in this county, where he was known and respected as one of our best citizens. He was well posted in current affairs and was a man of high ideals. He loved his family devotedly and sought to prepare his children for good and helpful citizenship. He was a member of Green Hill Baptist church and the St. John's Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons and faithfully reflected their teachings and principles in his daily life. He was buried at Green Hill Church Sunday with Masonic honors.

"J."

W. E. DURDEN ELECTED

FOR FOURTH TERM

Graymont, Georgia, September 17th, 1934.—One of the most hotly contested elections in the history of Emanuel

FIDELIS YOUNG M

The members of the Matrons Class of the School were delighted on Tuesday evening Mrs E B Bennett with ty." After the guests porch, they were led and dining rooms to grand march played Newton. Covers were tables for thirty two round their seats by on a large spider we double window of the place cards naming for each guest. The tifully decorated in t black and gold, and and beautifully served course carried out th every detail.

After supper an was enjoyed, after w Boykin and Elliott ed at the piano. Th the choruses of fam good time was had

FARM SEEN

F. C. Parker, Fle been authorized to for loans throughout the purpose of plan crops. This applies a ter grains planted and harvested in

T. W. RHODES, 44, SUCCUMBS HERE AFTER LONG ILLNESS

T. W. Rhodes, 44, died at his home here Sunday morning after an illness of several months.

Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon at the First Baptist Church with the Rev. H. E. Smith and the Rev. Richard Allmon officiating. Burial followed in the Sylvania City Cemetery under the direction of Wall Funeral Home.

Active pallbearers were Steve Robbins, Robert Robbins, Wilbur Cail, Paul Roach, Kimsey Dickey, and Ward Daughtry.

Honorary pallbearers were O. H. Layfield, W. H. Black, J. H. Evans, Jr., M. S. Moncrief, Charlie Waters, Jim Stubbs, Jim Mincey, Otis Altman, Ira Burke, E. L. Miller, Claude Pinckney, and Lloyd Oliver.

Mr. Rhodes was a member of the Antioch Christian Church, the Woodmen of the World and the Sylvania Lions Club. For many years he was employed by the electrical department of the City of Sylvania, but in recent years he had been engaged in the electrical business with his son, T. W. Rhodes, Jr.

He was a native of Jenkins County, but had lived in Sylvania for many years. He was the son of the late Laura Smith and Steven P. Rhodes of Jenkins County.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Oma Clayton Rhodes; a daughter, Miss Carolyn Rhodes; two sons, T. W. Rhodes, Jr., and Clayton Rhodes, all of Sylvania; three brothers, Winston Rhodes, Jackson, Mo.; Fla. Ellis Rhodes, Hilltop, Mo.; Ralph Rhodes, Millen, Ga.; and Mrs. Leslie Dickey, Hilltop, Mo.; Mrs. Maurice Dickey, Mrs. Ralph Chance, and Mrs. Stafford Dickey, all of Millen, and a number of nieces and nephews.

Born: MAY 14, 1904
Died: NOV. 28, 1948